Holiday Club 2024 – Xpedition Force! Booking is now open for this year's holiday club! The theme this year is Xpedition force and there will be a launch service for Holiday Club at 10am on Sunday 21st July. Holiday Club will run Monday 22nd – Wednesday 24th from 10am-2pm. Booking is essential and you can book children in now using this link <https://forms.gle/GRtoa2LJwXcj5FT19> or the QR code on the poster. Please note that the entire site will be used by the children and youth team and the young leaders from Monday 22nd – Friday 26th July.

Volunteers Thank you so much to everyone who has offered to help with holiday club – we now have a team! We could do with one extra person on the refreshments team on Monday and Wednesday – if you could do one or both of these please do let me (Helen Cross) know. Thank you again for all your support.

Safeguarding meeting - 30th June If you are helping with Holiday Club this year, please attend the Safeguarding meeting being held after the 10am service (and after coffee!) on 30th June.

Pop bottles, magnifying glasses and hama beads Helen and Sally need donations of empty (clean!) small pop/fruit shoot bottles and lots of hama beads (and accompanying mats) for two of the Holiday Club crafts this year. We also need donations of old magnifying glasses, preferably plastic, for one of the exploration activities this year.

Biscuits Please could we have some lovely volunteers to bake some (GF, vegan) biscuits for holiday club this year. We need about 50 biscuits. There is a recipe for these in the office along with the mould for the biscuit shapes. Thank you!

Binoculars etc Our theme for Holiday Club this year is an archaeological expedition. To help set the scene we'd really like some props such as binoculars, meter sticks, spades, walking boots, maps etc that we can display during the club. If you have anything that you think might help and would be happy to lend us for the week, please bring it to Helen or Sally

2 Samuel 1: 1, 17-end

After the death of Saul, when David had returned from defeating the Amalekites, David remained two days in Ziklag.

¹⁷ David intoned this lamentation over Saul and his son Jonathan. ¹⁸(He ordered that The Song of the Bow be taught to the people of Judah; it is written in the Book of Jashar.) He said:

¹⁹ Your glory, O Israel, lies slain upon your high places!

How the mighty have fallen!

²⁰ Tell it not in Gath,

proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon;

or the daughters of the Philistines will rejoice,
the daughters of the uncircumcised will exult.

²¹ You mountains of Gilboa,

let there be no dew or rain upon you, nor bounteous fields!

For there the shield of the mighty was defiled,
the shield of Saul, anointed with oil no more.

²² From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty,

the bow of Jonathan did not turn back,
nor the sword of Saul return empty.

²³ Saul and Jonathan, beloved and lovely!

In life and in death they were not divided;

they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

²⁴ O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul,

who clothed you with crimson, in luxury,

who put ornaments of gold on your apparel.

²⁵ How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle!

Jonathan lies slain upon your high places.

²⁶ I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan;

greatly beloved were you to me;

your love to me was wonderful,

passing the love of women.

²⁷ How the mighty have fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

Mark 5: 21-end

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered round him; and he was by the lake. ²²Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet ²³and begged him repeatedly, 'My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.' ²⁴So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. ²⁵Now there was a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years. ²⁶She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. ²⁷She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, ²⁸for she said, 'If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.' ²⁹Immediately her haemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. ³⁰Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' ³¹And his disciples said to him, 'You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, "Who touched me?"' ³²He looked all round to see who had done it. ³³But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. ³⁴He said to her, 'Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.'

³⁵ While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, 'Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?' ³⁶But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, 'Do not fear, only believe.' ³⁷He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. ³⁸When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. ³⁹When he had entered, he said to them, 'Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.' ⁴⁰And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. ⁴¹He took her by the hand and said to her, 'Talitha cum', which means, 'Little girl, get up!' ⁴²And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. ⁴³He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Prayer after Communion

Grant, O Lord, we beseech you, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered
by your governance,
that your Church may joyfully serve you in all godly quietness;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen
